Jim,

Dave from the lock shop and I will be stopping by sometime this morning to put a core in 224B. Yesterday you showed me a storage closet we could take a core from. That is our plan. Dave will have another core for the closet. Mark and I are looking for temporary shelves but if we cannot come up with some we may end up cutting the tall ones in your storage closet. Is that alright? Also what would be a convenient time to start the move on Monday? Please let me know.

Thanks,

Stephen
